

Stand Up for It

Brett Dennen

If there is something you love
You have to run to it, stand up for it
If there is something you love
You have to cherish it, stand up for it

Who draws the lines that separate good from evil?
They don't fall between borders
Religion or color

These are the lines that run through every one of us
Everyone of us capable
Of working for, working for good and working for evil

If there is something you love
You have to run to it, stand up for it
If there is something you love
You have to cherish it, stand up for it.

The everyday people like you and me
We have to realize that we are not divided
Everyday people like you and me
We have to realize that we are not divided

If there is something you love
You have to run to it, stand up for it
If there is something you love
You have to cherish it, stand up for it.
Stand up
Sha la la la la
Sha la la la la la

If you cross that line, you may find yourself alone
But you won't be for long
Somebody's gonna come and stand by your side

If there is something you love
You have to run to it, stand up for it
If there is something you love
You have to cherish it, stand up for it.
Stand up
Sha la la la la
Sha la la la la la
