Fall For Me

Brett Eldredge

Leaves breaking from trees
Caught in the wind
That's just gravity, and rain
All over town
Soaking it in
It's really coming down

If you were a falling star, would you fall right down on me?
If you were a mighty mountain crumbling to the sea
Would you fall for me?
(Would you fall?)
(Would you fall for me?)
Oh, baby, would you fall for me?

Night's closing in
Feels like the moon is my only friend, and tears
Run down your face
Don't have to try
Don't have to tell you why, but

If you were a falling star, would you fall right down on me?
If you were a mighty mountain crumbling to the sea
Would you fall for me?
(Would you fall?)
(Would you fall for me?)
Oh, baby, would you fall for me?
(Would you fall?)
(Would you fall for me?)
Oh, baby, would you fall for me?

You're walking on that tilted line
You let the tides make up your mind
I'll break your fall any time
Any time, yeah

If you were a falling star, would you fall right down on me
If you were a mighty mountain crumbling to the sea
Would you fall for me?
(Would you fall?)
(Would you fall for me?)
Oh, baby, would you fall for me?
Would you fall for me?
(Would you fall?)
(Would you fall for me?)
Oh, baby, would you fall for me?
Would you fall for me?
