

Hey, Mona Lisa

Brett Eldredge

Hey, Mona Lisa
You wanna smile, but you can't get him out of your head
He ruined your makeup
He don't deserve it after all that shit that he said

Pack your heart up and just leave him
Let me show you how you should be treated
Believe it, believe it

All right
Hold tight, kiss you in the moonlight
Till the sunrise, all night
Show me how you like to dance
And reach out your hands
Then let's go
Mumbo, don't know how the song goes
But the bongos got you
Puttin' both your hands up on my hips
Wrap me 'round your fingertips
And let's go

Hey, Mona Lisa
He never saw quite what I'm seein' in you
I'm a believer
You light me up every time you walk in a room
You're electric, you're amazing, oh
You're the picture I've been painting
Hop in, say when

All right
Hold tight, kiss you in the moonlight
Till the sunrise, all night
Show me how you like to dance
And reach out your hands
Then let's go
Mumbo, don't know how the song goes
But the bongos got you
Puttin' both your hands up on my hips
Wrap me 'round your fingertips
And let's go

Oh, baby, all right
Hold tight, kiss you in the moonlight
Till the sunrise, all night
Show me how you like to dance
And reach out your hands
Then let's go
Mumbo, don't know how the song goes
But the bongos got you
Puttin' both your hands up on my hips
Wrap me 'round your fingertips
And let's go

Hey, Mona Lisa
Oh, baby, let's go
Whoa, whoa
Baby, Mo-Mo-Mona Lisa

Look at that smile on your face
Hey, Mona Lisa, oh
