

You'll Be Mine

Brett Eldredge

I'll be your best excuse
Your wild man on the loose
I'll be your little white lie
When you can't stand the truth
I'll be your home stretch
That puts your heart in drive
I'll be yours if you'll be mine

I'll be your first sip
That takes the edge off quick
I'll be your get back up
That makes you bite your lip
And I'll be that August rain
Pouring heavy on your mind
I'll be yours if you'll be mine

Your pedal down, your take it slow
Your holding on and your letting go
Your first shot at love and your last try
Yeah, I'll be yours if you'll be mine

Your pedal down, your take it slow
Your holding on and your letting go
Your first shot at love and your last try
Yeah, I'll be yours if you'll be mine

Well, I'll be your highlight reel
White lie when the smoke all clears
I'll be your Cabernet
Getting better through the years
And I'll be a promise kept
For the rest of your life
Yeah, I'll be yours if you'll be mine
Yeah, I'll be yours if you'll be mine
