

Ain't The Same

Brett Kissel

Baby, this truck rides better on a back road
And this beer tastes better when it's ice cold
Like a small town water tower needs a little spray paint on it
I got your name on my heart 'cause you're all I ever wanted

The beach ain't the same without the sun
Coke ain't the same without the rum
Vegas needs them neon lights
Tequila needs that lime
Smoke ain't the same without the green
Guitars can't rock without the strings
Sky ain't the same without the blue
And girl, I ain't the same without you

Everybody knows a kiss tastes better in the moonlight
And making love feels better when it's all night
It's the perfect combination when lightning strikes with thunder
Yeah, I can't imagine life without you by my side
The emptiness inside having one without the other 'cause

The beach ain't the same without the sun
Coke ain't the same without the rum
Vegas needs them neon lights
Tequila needs that lime
Smoke ain't the same without the green
Guitars can't rock without the strings
Sky ain't the same without the blue
And girl, I ain't the same without you

Girl, I ain't the same without you
Girl, I ain't the same without you
Girl, I ain't the same, no
Oh

I ain't the same without you
Girl, you're the one that I need
Like flowers need rain, like gas needs the flame
You're the wild in all my dreams, oh

The beach ain't the same without the sun
Coke ain't the same without the rum
Vegas needs those neon lights
Tequila needs that lime
Smoke ain't the same without the green
Guitars can't rock without the strings
Sky ain't the same without the blue
And girl, I ain't the same without you

Girl, I ain't the same without you
Girl, I ain't the same without you
