Kindness

Brett Kissel

Saw a little kid hold a door for a man about five times his age
And somebody bought my coffee at the drive-thru yesterday
We tend to run full steam ahead and never stop to smile
So I called up my Grandpa just to talk for a little while

If kindness was contagious
And no one could escape it
Hate would be a four-letter word nobody used

Different isn't dangerous
Hands were meant for shakin'
Hearts were made for making love
This I promise you

The world would be such a better place if
Kindness was contagious

A church group helped rebuild a house that burned up down the road
Stranger walked across town to bring somebody's lost dog home
It's easy getting caught up looking out for number one
But we know how good it can feel when we stop to help someone

If kindness was contagious
And no one could escape it
Hate would be some four-letter word nobody used

Different isn't dangerous
Hands were meant for shakin'
Hearts were made for making love
This I promise you

Yeah, the world would be such a better place if
Kindness was contagious

Just 'cause you're red, don't mean you're right
Just 'cause you're left, don't make you blue
Hold onto faith for me
And I'll hold space for you

If kindness was contagious
No one could escape it
Hate would be a four-letter word nobody used

Different isn't dangerous
Hands were meant for shakin'
Hearts were made for making love
This I promise you

Yeah, the world would be such a better place if
The world would be such a better place if
Kindness was contagious
Kindness was contagious

World would be such a better place if
Kindness was contagious
