

Rich Is

Brett Kissel

He threw his platinum card on the airport bar in his threepiece custom suit
He ordered a scotch, I sat there and watched, and said "Man, I wish I was you"
I was down on my luck when the old man shrugged and said, "Yeah , son, the money's nice"
He said, "I made a pretty good livin', but I sure paid the pric e
So let me give you some free advice"

It ain't the house on the hill, it's the love that's in it Ain't this old Rolex, it's the minutes that you're given Ain't the name on the hood of the car that you buy
It's the car seat concert you get when you drive
Ain't the money that you make that makes the man
Ain't the gold in the bank, it's the gold on her hand
It's a life full of kids with their love, and their hugs, and t heir kisses
That's what rich is

Saw a picture of him and his kids on the screen and said, "Wow, so you've got four!"
Well, I've got two, they're down in Baton Rouge, but they don't talk to me no more
And that pretty brunette you've got on your left, I had one mys elf
But I was married to my job, and now she's married to someone e lse
So what you've got, man, that's wealth

It ain't the house on the hill, it's the love that's in it
Ain't this old Rolex, it's the minutes that you're given
Ain't the name on the hood of the car that you buy
It's the car seat concert you get when you drive
Ain't the money that you make that makes the man
Ain't the gold in the bank, it's the gold on her hand
It's a life full of kids with their love, and their hugs, and t heir kisses
That's what rich is Yeah, that's what rich is

Then he shook my hand and he bought my beer, and said
"Man, I ain't the rich one here"

It ain't the house on the hill, it's the love that's in it
Ain't this old Rolex, it's the minutes that you're given
Ain't the name on the hood of the car that you buy
It's the car seat concert you get when you drive

Ain't the money that you make that makes the man
Ain't the gold in the bank, it's the gold on her hand
It's a life full of kids with their love, and their hugs, and t heir kisses
That's what rich is Oh, that's what rich is
