

Dear Me

Brett Young

Dear me, twenty three
Backing out of the drive
Goodbye ringing in your head
It ain't over yet
Dear me, at the bar
Tryna find new love in the dark but it all feels wrong
You're the reason you can't move on
What if I told you

Don't even worry it'll all be alright
There's a light at the end of these lonely nights
And it's worth all the hell you're going through
What if I told you
This ain't the end you're just halfway
You'll look back and you'll thank God one day
When it's clear in your rearview
Dear me
When she ends up with you

Dear me, freaking out
'Cause she's smiling at parties and pictures with some new guy
Don't go and loose your mind
'Cause one day you'll run into her
And you'll talk all night
And you know it's only a matter of time
'Til she's in your arms again
If I could talk to me back then
I'd say

Don't even worry it'll all be alright
There's a light at the end of these lonely nights
And it's worth all the hell you're going through
What if I told you
This ain't the end you're just halfway
You'll look back and you'll thank God one day
When it's clear in your rearview
Dear me
When she ends up with you
Mmm she ends up with you

Dear me, settle down
She's out there somewhere thinking 'bout you right now
Wait 'til you see how it all works out

Don't even worry it'll all be alright
There's a light at the end of these lonely nights
And it's worth all the hell you're going through
What if I told you
This ain't the end you're just halfway
You'll look back and you'll thank God one day
When it's clear in your rearview
Dear me
When she ends up with you

Ooh ooh
Mmm
When she ends up with you

Ooh ooh
When she ends up with you
Ooh ooh
Ooh ooh
