

Not Yet

Brett Young

I know the stars are gonna leave us the later it gets
I know the moon is gonna disappear into the west
I know the sun is gonna come and steal your silhouette
But not yet, no, not yet

'Cause you still got a lotta kisses left on your lips
Yeah, you still got a lotta time to take away my breath
You still got a lotta driving me wild left
With that smile, with those eyes, I ain't done loving you tonight
Not yet, not yet

We'll find the bottom of the bottle eventually
And we're gonna run out of excuses to not go to sleep
And I wanna hold you while you're drifting off to dream
But not yet, no, not yet

'Cause you still got a lotta kisses left on your lips
Yeah, you still got a lotta time to take away my breath
You still got a lotta driving me wild left
With that smile, with those eyes, I ain't done loving you tonight
Not yet, no, not yet

We still got some memories left to make
Before tonight turns into yesterday, ey

You still got a lotta kisses left on your lips
Yeah, you still got a lotta time to take away my breath
You still got a lotta driving me wild left
With that smile, with those eyes, I ain't done loving you tonight
Not yet, not yet
Not yet, not yet
