Brian Eno

Thundering Dow Jones caffeine wheel
Frequencies steal adrenaline
Shifting like a lizard spine
And a didgeridoo
As number stack and break
And diamonds shard in two
In two

Ballistic timps and driving night
Signalling diodes and natural light
Tokyo by day stock exchange by night
Stock exchange by day Tokyo by night

Muddle think brew paddle on through
Money in the mix you pick up sticks
Pitching loud performing proud
Manna kannu mazzu
As numbers stack and break
And diamond shard in two
In two

Ballistic timps and driving night
Signalling diodes and natural light
Tokyo by day stock exchange by night
