Open All Night

Brian Fallon

I'm goin' back to New York City
I just can't wait no more for you
I got so lonely, sold what you gave me
'Cept that raincoat, the famous blue

And I don't need time to think about it
I don't let reminders get me down like before
But you know I used to know you Back when local bars and broken hearts were home, and we were o pen all night long

Maybe I'll go out Chicago
Ain't that where the blues belong?
I heard you came by, shook up by the radio Somethin' about the topback, wayfarers on

But I don't need time to think about it
I don't let reminders get me down like before
But you know I used to know you
Back when local bars and broken hearts were home, and we were o pen all night long

And all this must've been comin' a long, long time, 29 years of nerves on fire
Nobody came and nobody saw, made a wreck of myself with the hea dlights on Worked these hands straight down the bone, carried the weight u ntil the weight took over Ended up standing at a fork in the road with you

But I don't need time to think about it
I don't let reminders get me down like before
But you know I used to know you Back when local bars and your crooked heart was my home, mmhmm.

And I will never know the town where you finally settled down
With the top back on a Cadillac and your sunglasses on
And you can't make me whole, I have to find that on my own
But I held you, babe, a long, long time ago, and we were open a ll night long
