

Another

Brian McKnight

I'm so glad that we've had this time together
On my radio and right on my TV
There's no predicting the shortness of forever
And why the plan is always difficult to see
'Cause you were taken so unexpectedly

Another day, another hour
Another chance to see you wasn't meant to be
Another moment, another second
If I could tell you just how much you mean to me
I wish I could tell you just how much you mean to me

Have no choice but to wallow in my sorrow
For just a moment we are here and then we're gone
I guess I thought that we'd always have tomorrow
But the magic in your music lingers on
I just wish that you were here to sing along

Another day, another hour
Another chance to see you wasn't meant to be
Another moment, another second
If I could tell you just how much you mean to me
I wish I could tell you just how much you mean to me

So many questions but no answers why
I wished I had the chance to say goodbye

Another day, another hour
Another chance to see you wasn't meant to be
Another moment, another second
I would tell you just how much you meant to me
I would tell you just how much you mean to me
I wish I could tell you just how much you mean to me
