Middleman

Brian Melo

You call me up at three in the morning
I pick you up it's the same old story we're in
You say you're done with him

The truth comes out when you're feeling tipsy
You say you wish that he was more like me and then
You fall apart again

That's all right girl I don't mind
Feel like crying I'll talk you through
'Cause if he don't know you're beautiful
Well it only proves he's a fool

I've been hanging on the words rolling off your lips
Hearing all about the love you can't resist
Got me wishing I was him and not just a friend
I'll give you all I have if you give me a chance
More than a middleman

Parked in the dark with our hearts both racing
Could talk forever 'bout the time we're wasting and why
We never crossed the line

I can't lie girl all this time
I've been waiting for his luck to end
'Cause he can't love you more than I do
So why should we even pretend?

I've been hanging on the words rolling off your lips
Hearing all about the love you can't resist
Got me wishing I was him and not just a friend
I'll give you all I have if you give me a chance
More than a middleman

Am I more than just a shoulder you're leaning on?
Am I more than open arms holding you 'til dawn?
Always here listening, all your secrets I'm keeping
Tell me if I am more than a middleman?

I've been hanging on the words rolling off your lips
Hearing all about the love you can't resist
Got me wishing I was him and not just a friend
I'll show you all I am if you give me a chance
More than a middleman

More than a middle, more than a middleman
More than a middle, more than a middleman
More than a middle, more than a middleman
More than a middleman
