

Take A Chance On Love

Brian Setzer

I got a lucky rabbit's foot
I got a loaded pair of dice
I hang the horseshoe over my bed
Because my luck's been cold as ice

I love to watch that roulette wheel
Spinnin' round and round
I place a bet at five to one
When my baby comes to town

I'm gonna love you baby with all of my might
I'm gonna make you feel alright
You're gonna love me baby like you said you would
Honey just like a young girl should

Baby take a chance on love, on love
Baby take a chance on love
You're the only one I'm dreamin' of
Baby take a chance, baby's in a trance
Baby take a chance on love

My lucky thirteen black cat bones
And a lady luck tattoo
I got a hoodoo voodoo doll
And a photograph of you

I'm gonna cast a magic spell
A magic spell of love
And then I'll put you in my trance
My magic trance of love

I'm gonna love you baby with all of my might
I'm gonna make you feel alright
You're gonna love me baby like you said you would
Honey just like a young girl should

Baby take a chance on love, on love
Baby take a chance on love
You're the only one I'm dreamin' of
Baby take a chance, baby's in a trance
Baby take a chance on love

I'm gonna take this step by step
I'm gonna take this seriously
I'm gonna take things one at a time
Because I love you obviously

But if you just want to break my heart
Don't be wasting my time
'Cause with you from the very start
Our love was a felony crime

I'm gonna love you baby with all of my might
I'm gonna make you feel alright
You're gonna love me baby like you said you would
Honey just like a young girl should

Baby take a chance on love, on love
Baby take a chance on love
You're the only on I'm dreamin' of
Baby take a chance, baby's in a trance
Baby take a chance on love
