All Alone

Brick+Mortar

Words can fall straight from the sky
I trusted you more than I trusted you than
My old life, oh yes, that's right
Words in a book in statement you made
When you thought it would last your whole life
Fear of the world and the things that it does
And you ask where it always goes wrong

Fear driving all alone
I took the wrong road home
(I don't know, I don't know)
Just which way to go?
I let the melody show
(I don't know, I don't know)

What you gonna run your whole life?
Feed on the ground with your hand in the clouds
That ain't no life, oh yes, that's right
Words can fall straight from the sky
Names in a book of the people you'll be
And the things that you'll do with your life
Fear of the world and the things that it does
And you ask where it always goes wrong

Fear driving all alone
I took the wrong road home
(I don't know, I don't know)
Just which way to go?
I let the melody show
(I don't know, I don't know)

Fear dying alone
(Fear dying alone)

Words in a book, in a statement you made
When you thought it would last your whole life
Fear of the world and the things that it does
And you ask where it always goes wrong

Fear driving all alone
I took the wrong road home
(I don't know, I don't know)
Just which way to go?
I let the melody show
(I don't know, I don't know)

Fear driving all alone
I took the wrong road home
Just which way to go?
I let the melody show
(I don't know, I don't know)

Fear dying all alone
