

Hate Thy Neighbor

Brick+Mortar

Show me I'm not the one
Tell me my time has come
Spare me
Your hollow prayers
Or shoot me now
I'm almost there

I follow you
All the colors come real in the rain
Tell me baby could you feel this way?
Cause I feel that way
I follow you
All the colors come real in the rain
Tell me baby could you feel this way?
Cause I feel that way

I really wanna see you fall
I wanna watch you lose it all
I never want to see you smile
I think you're dead for a while
I really wanna watch you burn
I wanna watch you die and learn
I wanna learn just why you speak
I don't wanna know why you breathe
I make a deal with the devil
To put a spell on you
Sold my soul to the devil
Just to watch you lose

I follow you
All the colors come real in the rain
Tell me baby could you feel this way?
Cause I feel that way
I follow you
All the colors come real in the rain
Tell me baby could you feel this way?
Cause I feel that way

Feel this way...
Feel that way...
Feel this way...
Feel that way...

Feel this way...
Feel that way...
Trails of red and blue
Will get the best of you

Nobody want to play the fool
I know they taught you who to blame
And now you might just feel ashamed
But that's a rich man's game
They really wanna watch you burn
They wanna watch you die and learn
They wanna learn just why you speak
They don't wanna know why you breath
But you made a deal with the devil

To put a spell on you
Sold your soul to the devil
Just to watch me lose

I follow you
All the colors come real in the rain
Tell me baby could you feel this way?
Cause I feel that way
I follow you
All the colors come real in the rain
Tell me baby could you feel this way?
Cause I feel that way

Tell me baby
Could you spare some change?
Just to ease my pain
She told me baby
Here the rest is just for you
And the day is new
She told me baby
All the colors in the rain
They make you feel some kinda way
But the trails of red and blue
Will get the best of you...
