

No I Won't Go

Brick+Mortar

Stranger, stranger, where've you been?
Back foot say you better go
Why would you say that to me?
Black forest cherry love

First there was blood, then there were tears
I gave you my word, but I gotta run
Over and over, claim that I'm sober
Over and over

No I won't go, I won't go, I won't ever go [x2]
Better run, I got my reasons
You should know that more than anyone
No I won't, no I don't, no I won't ever go
(No I won't go, I won't go, I won't ever go) [x2]

Dangers, dangers stepping in
Look at that white light soaked in skin
Break my bones with every word
Black forest cherry love

First there was blood, then there were tears
I gave you my word, but I gotta run
Over and over, claim that I'm sober
Over and over

No I won't go, I won't go, I won't ever go [x2]
Better run, I got my reasons
You should know that more than anyone
No I won't, no I don't, no I won't ever go

Once more, you've heard it all before but you stay, stay
Cause they cut your lock on the door
Once more, you've heard it all before but you stay
Don't cut my life's on the run

No I won't go, I won't go, I won't ever go [x2]
Better run, I got my reasons
You should know that more than anyone
No I won't, no I don't, no I won't ever go

Looking at me, looking at me
Better than the man I am
Better run, I got my reasons
You should know that more than anyone
No I won't, no I don't, no I won't ever go
