

Doubt

Bride

Broken many promises, thrown caution to the wind
Rebelledd in my youth, here you come again
You are the message in the bottle, light that never dims
Ttthough I let you down, you'll always be my frind

I will never forget, I will have no regrets

Don't want to cheat anyone
Don't want to steal from anyone
Don't want to lie
Don't want to quit
Don't want to leave any doubt

I put my faith in fairy tales, believed what I was told I've watched the holy eat their own, suck the meat and lick the bone
There's only one voice, my universal guide
You've alway been beside me, even when I wanted to die

I will never forget, I will have no regrets

Don't want to cheat anyone
Don't want to steal from anyone
Don't want to lie
Don't want to quit
Don't want to leave any doubt

Don't want to step on anyone
Don't want to hurt anyone
Don't want to curse anyone
Don't want to leave any doubt

Sometimes I itch and squirm to crawl out of my skin
You put your arm around me like the air that I take in Won't push no needle in my arm or bathe in gasoline
Never swear in Jesus' name or hide behind the pain

Don't want to cheat anyone
Don't want to steal from anyone
Don't want to step on anyone
Don't want to hurt anyone
Don't want to curse anyone
Don't want to leave any doubt
