

Fire and Brimstone

Bride

All the words have been said
No new visions or chapters to be read
Every song has been sung
Tolling bells have been rung

I am coming for you
Soon you will know
Everybody's had a chance
Fire and brimstone

Fire and brimstone

No more babies can be born
Vows of oath can't be sworn
The last bent knee has repented
Lightning from the sky has been sent

I am coming for you
Soon you will know
Everybody's had a chance
Fire and brimstone

Fire and brimstone

All the wars have been fought
No criminals to be caught
Complete lies have entirely spread
No more graves to bury your dead

I am coming for you
Soon you will know
Everybody's had a chance
Fire and brimstone

Fire and brimstone
