Vertigo

Bridge to Grace

I feel like I'm falling all over again
The visions are blurry inside of my head
It makes me so sick, that I wish I was dead
Losing all control cause we're lost in Vertigo!

I won't wait here forever for something to change
To weak to slather the ropes and the chains
The doors are all locked now, won't get in this time
Still trying to reach you, still standing in line

Listen to the words you sold me with all of that cold you found
I tried to keep ever holding but we couldn't get the demons down
I didn't even mind the blindness, I didn't even mind the cold
Ain't nothing gonna stop me, I'm taking back the heart you stole

I feel like I'm falling all over again
And the visions are blurry inside of my head
Yeah, it makes me so sick that I wish I was dead
Losing all control cause we're lost in Vertigo!

Trying to keep it together, too scared to move
Standing will never just playing the fool
Holding on tight now, the room starts to spin
I'm tired of asking for all this to end

Listen to the words you sold me with all of that cold you found
I tried to keep ever holding but we couldn't get the demons down
I didn't even mind the blindness, didn't even mind the cold
Ain't nothing gonna stop me, I'm taking back the heart you stole

I feel like I'm falling all over again
The visions are blurry inside of my head
It makes me so sick, that I wish I was dead
Losing all control, lost in Vertigo!

My head hits the floor, if I take much more will it ever spell?
Let me off of this carousel, you can't pay me to stay if I walk away

I feel like I'm falling all over again
The visions are blurry inside of my head
It makes me so sick, that I wish I was dead
Losing all control...

I feel like I'm falling all over again
And the visions are blurry inside of my head
And it makes me so sick, that I wish I was dead
Losing all control
Cause we're lost in Vertigo!
Cause we're lost in Vertigo!
Cause we're lost in Vertigo!
Losing all control cause we're lost in Vertigo!
