

I Won't Cry / Almost More

Bridget Kelly

It took me a while
To learn to forgive you
I hate to admit it
But I couldn't accept the truth now
I wasn't ready
For the vision you showed me
I hate to admit
But baby you own me

Someday you'll ask about me
Wonder where I'm at if I'm happy
Thought you should know
I let it go, I'm better off
Living my dream

All of your lies
Can't even look in my eyes
Thought you were right
Even when you said goodbye
I won't cry [3x]

U may never know
How I hung on your every word
Promised to take care of me
But my voice was never heard
I was naïve
Love seems so casual
But when push came to shove
It was just business as usual

Someday you'll ask about me
Wonder where I'm at if I'm happy
Thought you should know
I let it go, I'm better off
Living my dream

All of your lies
Can't even look in my eyes
Thought you were right
Even when you said goodbye
I won't cry [3x]

Don't wanna be alone
Tell me when you on your way
Please don't take too long
Cuz you know I hate to wait
And I don't always make this call when I'm horny
Cuz I always get caught up when I'm lonely

Tonight we're almost more
Than lovers, than lovers
We're almost more
If you stay until the morning
Imma give you all of me
We could fall in love real easy
If you like that sorta thing

We're almost more

How did we let this go so far now?

I'm lost in the momentum

Caught between

Fantasy and reality

Turn down the lights

Baby, feel your way to me

You can have it your way

Even just for tonight

And I don't always make this call when I'm horny

Cuz I always get caught up when I'm lonely

Than lovers, than lovers

We're almost more

Than lovers, than lovers

If you stay until the morning

Imma give you all of me

We could fall in love real easy

If you like that sorta thing

We're almost more
