

Little Did You Know

Bridget Kelly

I bet you're probably wondering where the hell I've been Well let me be the first to say I'm doing fine
The last few years have knocked me down but I'm still here
I'm trying not to lose my mind

Then my heart got broken
Couldn't find a pair of arms that were open
Bank accounts all in the negative
Went out and got a job just so I could live
And now I gotta level up
'Cause I know I didn't it now
I gotta push my pride aside and make it right

Little did you know I had lost my way
Little did you know I came close to throwing it all away
Little did you know it still hurts sometimes
Little did you know that the fault was mine
Little did you know
(Little did you know)

Shoutout to the real ones that I started with Even all the ones who left me high and dry
If I had the confidence to stand up for myself way back then
I would've learned the power of goodbye

But I can't blame the label
Though they should've brought more to the table
I guess I'll chuck it all up to politic
Grateful for the moments that I won't forget
Now I gotta level up
'Cause I wasn't fighting hard enough
Give it all I got this time and do it right

Little did you know I had lost my way
Little did you know I came close to throwing it all away
Little did you know it still hurts sometimes
Little did you know that the fault was mine
Little did you know I pray to God each night
Little did you know [?] to drown in all of these tears I cried
Little did you know about my dream [?]
Little did you know that I'm still alive
I'm still alive
(Little did you know)
(Little did you know)
