

Run After You

Bridget Kelly

Sit down, forget about all the crazy things that I do
I know you're mad, I take it back
I never wanted to hurt you
The truth is my pride is too strong
I can't keep this wall up no more
You see the games that I play them over, I can't let you go
Oh wait, wait, wait, wait, please don't say that you're leaving, no, no
I said wait, wait, wait, wait, stay right here, I can't be alone

I can't hide, I'm weak, I need you by my side
I know I be trippin', you're right
I can't be without you tonight
But if you go, I will run after you
Run after you, run after you
I will run after you
Run after you, run after you

Sorry that I'm a mess, I couldn't figure out what to do, do
I've been tryna' get away
Far away from the fact that I'm in love with you
And the truth is that I feel ashamed for making you feel it's over
Baby I know that you care, you're a real one
I can't let you go

I can't hide, I'm weak, I need you by my side
I know I be trippin', you're right
I can't be without you tonight
But if you go, I will run after you
Run after you, run after you
I will run after you
Run after you, run after you
I will run after you
Run after you, run after you
I will run after you
Run after you, run after you

Said I will run after you
Name my first son after you
I'll love no one after you
Boy don't make me come after you
Said I will run after you
I have a son just for you
I lose myself over you
Boy don't make me come after you

I can't hide, I'm weak, I need you by my side
I know I be trippin', you're right
I can't be without you tonight
But if you go, I will run after you
Run after you, run after you
I will run after you
Run after you, run after you
I will run after you
Run after you, run after you
I will run after you
Run after you, run after you
