

Clairaudients (Kill or Be Killed)

Bright Eyes

Cassadaga, oh yeah, that's where you're going to find the center of energy.
And they've got those in Arizona too.
You know, there's, I know that there's wonderful grounds that have vortexes.
That you might be interested in going to.
And then go to Nevada. And then go to California.
And then come south and go back through Arizona.
And go through Texas. You know what I'm saying?
Getting rid of the old feelings of the old ways of thinking.
And, you know, it's kind of like with people and the tarot cards.
Just because you get the Death card doesn't mean death or dying.
It means transformation. It means changing things around and starting something new.
Cause I was pulling in on a, on a dog or companion
Somehow I get the impression that you're almost a little afraid to start the trip.
It doesn't have to be a straight line happy face.
But make kind of a happy face, I mean kind of a smile.
Go up, up the east coast, but it's gonna be a circle.
You know what I'm saying? It's gonna be a sloppy circle.
Don't be afraid. You know, years and years and years ago, you know, you might,
You might have come across some river and rock and the mountains or whatever.
And then when you get there maybe you'll have the answers you seek.

We have moved into a new era and life as we know it is changing.
Your relationships, career, and location will all be subject with an energy.
Allow me to share with you tips that will assist you during these new times.

Don't give up hope on yourself, no.
Just be patient about the fact that, be patient about how things are unfolding.
Because psychically, you're less ... why are you afraid to start?
I think you should go.
I think you should go.
You know, plan ahead, pack the things that you think you're gonna need,
And then just go.
Cassadaga might be just a premonition of a place you're going to visit.

It's kill or be killed
