

Old Soul Song (For the New World Order)

Bright Eyes

Grey like new day leaks through the window
And some old song comes on the alarm clock radio
We walk the forty blocks to the middle
Of the place we heard that everything would be

And there were barricades to keep us off the street
But the crowd kept pushing forward
Till they swallowed the police

Yeah, they went wild, yeah, they went wild
Yeah, they went wild, yeah, they went wild

We left before the dust had time to settle
And all the broken glass swept off the avenue
And all the way home held your camera like a Bible
Just wishing so bad that it held some kind of truth

And I stood nervous next to you in the dark room
You dropped the paper in my water
And it all begins to bloom

Yeah, they go wild, yeah, they go wild
Yeah, they go wild, yeah, they go wild

And just when I get so lonesome I can't speak
I see some flowers on a hill side
Like a wall of new TV's

Yeah, they go wild, yeah, they go wild
Yeah, they go wild, yeah, they go wild

Yeah, they go wild, yeah, they go wild
Yeah, they go wild, yeah, they go wild
