

I'll Carry You

Brighten

There's life on calvary hill
When your world is never fulfilled
When tied in ropes around your hopes
Bound and tighter still
Covered in linen and wool
Stranded alone in the cold
With no one else in a living hell
Where deadly lies are told,
Where deadly lies are told

Run, where do you run
Where do you go when you're the only one
Me, fall into me
Even when you think all is said and done
You can run to me
Cause life was meant to be forever love
I'll carry you

Trust me a little bit more
More than ever before
I swear I'll never let you go
I'll show you there is more
More than the love you give
I will love you more than this
Show you love, you're good enough
Forever does exist
And I will show you this

Run, where do you run
Where do you go when you're the only one
Me, fall into me
Even when you think all is said and done
You can run to me
Cause life was meant to be forever love
I'll carry you

Through the end of the day
Till the world fades away
I will carry you, I will carry you
Till the day when we live another world away
I will carry you, I will carry you

Run, where do you run
Where do you go when you're the only one
Me, fall into me
Even when you think all is said and done
You can run to me
Cause life was meant to be forever love
I'll carry
Life was meant to be forever love
I'll carry you
