

Cinnamon

Briston Maroney

'Nother day, 'nother truck stop cup of coffee
The interstate winds me away from you
But who knew I could get this lonely
In a town that looks this pretty
I guess it just reminds me

That you're sweet like cinnamon
Can't get rid of this feelin' if I tried
Reminisce on the songs we sang
When we drove right through the night

Friday, I'm in love
Got a landslide in my heart, in my mind 'cause
You know every word to "Harvest Moon"
And I told you you're my sugar magnolia
Tiny Dancer, I'll hold you
Close your eyes 'cause you know I'll be home soon
To sing these songs for you

'Nother show in a tiny town in Texas
I hope you know I wish you were here
And it's clear the house we built of blankets
Is the only dream I'm chasin'
It's worth all of the waitin'

But you're sweet like cinnamon
Can't get rid of this feelin' if I tried
Reminisce on the songs we sang
When we drove right through the night

Friday, I'm in love
Got a landslide in my heart, in my mind 'cause
You know every word to "Harvest Moon"
And I told you you're my sugar magnolia
Tiny Dancer, I'll hold you
Close your eyes 'cause you know I'll be home soon
To sing these songs for you
To sing these songs for you

Ooh
Oh
