

Hard To Tell

Briston Maroney

Well, I ain't no old dog
But I got a trick or two, baby
I can show it to you sometime
It ain't what I wanted
But I gotta give it to you, baby
You've been on my mind
You don't need no textbook
Baby, I can teach it to you right now
If you're willing to try

And what's it gonna take for you to open your heart?
It used to be me, now it's somebody else
And I've been waiting for you from the very start
And baby, it's just too hard to tell

Well, I ain't no old dog
But I'm growing tired now, baby
Moving down your line
So take it as it comes, babe
I think it's gonna take a little time
To get to sleep at night

And what's it gonna take for you to open your heart?
It used to be me, now it's somebody else
And I've been waiting for you from the very start
Baby, it's just too hard to tell

And what's it gonna take for you to open your heart?
Used to be me, now it's somebody else
And I've been waiting for you from the very start
Baby, it's just too hard to tell
