

I've Been Waiting

Briston Maroney

And I'm sorry baby
If I hurt you with the words that I said
I know we had plans and now we're gonna go and change
All of them

And if it means so much now
You don't have to be so cold
And if you want it so bad
Just let me know

Oh I've been waiting, I've been waiting
For you all my life
Oh I've been waiting, I've been waiting
For you all my life

Oh, it builds me up
And it tears me down
To never know
What I'm feeling now
Oh, it builds me up
And it tears me down
Oh, to never know
What I'm feeling now
Oh, it builds me up
And it tears me down
Oh, to never know
What I'm feeling now
Oh, it builds me up
And it tears me down
Oh, to never know
What I'm feeling now

Oh I've been waiting, I've been waiting
For you all my life
Oh I've been waiting, I've been waiting
For you all my life

Oh I've been waiting, I've been waiting
For you all my life
Oh I've been waiting, I've been waiting
For you all my life
