

Blinded

British India

And I can't keep on running
At these kind of speeds
Cause when you're standing with me
I can't move my feet

And you're not the problem
The problem's you and me
I wish I didn't say that
I wish I didn't think that

I used to be so blind
But now I sort of see
That everything I had
Was right between my feet
I used to be so blinded

And don't forget your camera
To get a final shot
Of your friends as they are leaving
Everybody's leaving

A certain kind of silence
When a good song ends
But I kept trying to fill it
I kept trying to fill it

I used to be so blind
But now I sort of see
That everything I had
Was right between my feet

If ever you came back
I'd never let you go
It doesn't matter now
But I want you to know

I used to be so blinded
I used to be so blinded
I used to be so blind

And nothing stays the same
We were handsome and clever and well behaved
And loving you always
And I gave you, gave you, gave you all away

I used to be so blind
But now I sort of see
That everything I had
Was right between my feet

If ever you came back
I'd never let you go
It doesn't matter now
But I want you to know

I used to be so blinded
I used to be so blinded

I used to be so blind

If I could have the chance back

It doesn't matter now

I just want you to know that

I didn't mean to end everything like that
