

Precious

British India

After the movie
I'm drunk and honest I
If everything could just stay always the same as it is right now w

Don't drift away though
Stay stuck in place and time
You're not convinced though you will Have to move on with your life
Nothing else could ever feel right

If everything could stay the same as it is right now
If everything could stay the same as it is right now
But everything is fucking precious
Why does it have to be so precious now
But everything's so fucking precious
Why does life have to be so precious

When we were younger
My friends would come with gold
Time's not for sales though they say
What you get's not what you want
We were made to be apart and

If everything could stay the same as it is right now
If everything could stay the same as it is right now
But everything is fucking precious
Why does it have to be so precious now
But everything's so fucking precious
Why does life have to be so precious
So precious, so precious, so precious now

If everything could stay the same as it is right now
If everything could stay the same as it is right now
But everything is fucking precious
Why does it have to be so precious now
But everything's so fucking precious
Why does life have to be so precious
So precious, so precious, so precious now
