British Sea Power

From Blackpool to the Gaza Strip
There is a warzone full of teats
It is beginning to grate on me
It goes on, it goes on, it goes on
On for evermore

Now you don't love me anymore
So don't catch me if I fall

In a Scarborough caravan
There lives a prehistoric man
He is searching for fulfilment
It goes, it goes on, it goes on
On for evermore

Now you don't love me anymore
So catch me if I fall down

Has anyone lost a sense of [?]
It goes on, it goes on, it goes on
On for evermore

Now you don't love me anymore
So don't catch me if I fall

Now you don't love me anymore
So don't catch me if I fall down
Now you don't love me anymore
So don't catch me if I fall down
Down, down, down, down
It goes on, it goes on
On for evermore
For evermore
