

Here And Gone

Britnee Kellogg

Part of you is in the shadows
Part of you is in the light
Most of us I think is gone forever
But part of us is still alive

How much of you is leaning in
How much of you is walkin' out

Can't you see me standing here screaming out loud
You're looking at me but you don't hear a sound
I cant reach you or please you I'm drowning
Baby tell me right now
Do I stay put do I move on
You're somewhere between here and gone

One day you show up holding roses
The next you say you're gonna leave
Most days I don't think you notice
What you're doin' to me
Look what you're doin' to me

Can't you see me standing here screaming out loud
You're looking at me but you don't hear a sound
I cant reach you or please you I'm drowning
Baby tell me right now
Do I stay put do I move on
You're somewhere between here and gone

How much of you is leaning in
How much of you is walking out

Can't you see me standing here screaming out loud
You're looking at me but you don't hear a sound
I cant reach you or please you I'm drowning
Baby tell me right now
Do I stay put do I move on
You're somewhere between here and gone
Somewhere between here and gone
