

Keep Going

Britt Nicole

And I've been in my head, like, every day
Just keep goin'
I don't know what steps that I should take
Oh, I wanna get it right
But life is full of big surprises
Baby, this is what I'm findin'
There's a story that we're all writin'
Oh, I realize

I gotta just keep goin'
Just keep goin'
It's gonna come into focus (Ooh-ahh)
Oh, I'm hopin'
That I can just keep goin'
I'm not always gonna get it right (Get it right)
But that don't mean that I can't shine (Ooh-ahh)
Oh, on the darkest night
I'm gonna just keep goin'

Let your troubles just wash away
Let go of all the pain of yesterday
'Cause, baby, I can see a brighter day
If you just keep goin'
And don't you know that it is up to you
It's up to you what all you're gonna choose
'Cause there are days when we will win and lose
We gotta just keep goin'

Step by step
Every minute, every hour, every moment
We're gon' take it day by day
Take my hand, we'll do it together
We're gonna take it step by step
Every minute, every hour, every moment
We're gon' take it day by day
Take my hand, we'll do it together
(And nothing's holdin' me back)

So, on the days that I wake up and I can't see a way
I'll lift my hands and I will praise
I'll say, I'll say
I'll say that I'll love You forever and ever
Nothing compares to Your goodness and mercy
Nothing compares, no
Love You forever and ever (Love You, love You, love You)
Nothing compares to Your goodness and mercy (Nothing compares, nothing compa res to You)
(And nothing's holdin' me back) Nothing's holdin' me
(And nothing's holdin' me back) Nothing's holdin' me
(And nothing's holdin' me back)
(Woah) Love You forever and ever
