

Foolish Believer

Broadside

I always remember
4 in the morning lost in a daze
Just staring at the ceiling
Praying for the answers to my pain
The days turn into those nights when I question life
I could be wrong but what if I'm right
I won't lose my faith

Yeah maybe I'm a foolish believer
And you keep tellin' me to leave it
Please, I know my days are numbered
I just wanna be remembered
(I just wanna be remembered)

I can't shake the feeling
All the world is just a stage
And everybody's acting
Hoping that the crowd will numb the pain
So here goes another line from a fading light
I need your love 'cause I've sold all mine
Don't walk away

Yeah maybe I'm a foolish believer
And you keep tellin' me to leave it
Please, I know my days are numbered
I just wanna be remembered
I'm a foolish believer
And you keep tellin' me to leave it
Please, I know my days are numbered
I just wanna be remembered
(I just wanna be remembered)

I got a feeling that it's gonna be a lonely night
A storm is coming I can feel it in the back of my mind
I got a feeling that it's gonna be a lonely night (I can feel it, I can feel it)
The rain is coming but it cannot stop the fire inside

Yeah maybe I'm a foolish believer
And you keep tellin' me to leave it
Please, I know my days are numbered
I just wanna be remembered
I'm a foolish believer
And you keep tellin' me to leave it
Please, I know my days are numbered
I just wanna be remembered
'Cause I just wanna be remembered

I just wanna be remembered
I just wanna be remembered
I just wanna be remembered
