

The Thrill

Broadside

Pick up the phone
Ain't got the time
To waste away
Cause this feeling
Has me thinking out loud

So settle up and back it up once again
I can't expect you all to understand
Cause how you make me feel
It's so unreal now take a step back
Come on come on

Your off without me

I know I know
Boys will be boys
I've got to make sure
That your done for

Will you make you make up
Your goddamn mind
With what you want with
What you want with me
Yeah... yeah yeahh

What can I say
Not much has changed.
You've crossed the line
On everything
And I have to remind you
To live a little cause its over

Shes on her way to the top
Of your level of ignorance
But I've been a fool
And I'll say

That your better off without me

I know I know
Boys will be boys
I've got to make sure
That your done for

Will you make you make up
Your goddamn mind
With what you want with
What you want with me
Yeah...

How can I forgive you
For making up your own choices
So... you've got to move on

Times are changing
Weekdays are fading
Always keep your guard up

Don't bring me down!

We lost two years
It could have been a thrilled adventure
Like anything we've ever done before [2x]

Lets go!
