

What Have I Done?

Broadside

Don't go
I wanna hear ya
And you've never sounded this good before
Louder
I wanna feel it
Think about ya every-time it rains
Wash my tears away

I know I said that I'd get better
You know I love to sell my broken heart
But still our dreams are often tethered
Standing on another lonely stage
Wrap around me like you're made of chains

What lovely sound
Can you hear it?
What lovely sound

What have I done
What have I done
What have I done to deserve your love at all
I'm not worthy, no, I'm not worthy, no

Don't go
Ya need you to hear this
And I love that fire in your eyes
Gospel
Ya wanna hear it
Scream it out or put it on a page
Strike a match and jump into the flame

Pave the way and all else follows
Change the way that you see yourself
Somedays, you won't get it right and that's okay
It doesn't matter how you handle pain
Promise me you'll stay

What a lovely sound
Can you hear it
What a lovely sound

What have I done
What have I done
What have I done to deserve your love at all
I'm not worthy, no, I'm not worthy
What have I done
What have I done
What have I done to deserve your love at all
I'm not worthy, no, I'm not worthy, no

It's starting to feel like the pieces are aligned
Spent too many nights trying to make it out alive
It's starting to feel like the pieces are aligned
Spent too many nights trying to make it out alive

Trying to make it out alive

What have I done
What have I done
What have I done to deserve your love at all
I'm not worthy, no, I'm not worthy
What have I done
What have I done
What have I done to deserve your love at all
I'm not worthy, no, I'm not worthy, no
