

Best Year

Broadway Calls

This is a dark one for you
You've made the worst of my best year
I'm talking record book good times
And then along came my worst fear

Oh, I hope you're ready for this
Heartbroken life approaches
Oh, I hope you're ready
For this

If it takes the rest of your life
You owe me one good year
Until then I'll be screaming revenge
Deep into your ear, my dear

I can't tell I'm alive
My heart died along with my mind
Wish I could just trust my lungs
But they've been abused too many times

Oh, I hope you're ready for this
Heartbroken life approaches
Oh, I hope you're ready
For this

If it takes the rest of your life
You owe me one good year
Until then I'll be screaming revenge
Deep into your ear, my dear

This is pathetic, I've let it
Turn me upside down, inside out
Sometimes it's just broke and can't be fixed
Sometimes we just can't find a way out

Oh, I hope you're ready for this
Heartbroken life approaches
Oh, I hope you're ready
For this

If it takes the rest of your life
You owe me one good year
Until then I'll be screaming revenge
Deep into your ear, my dear, I said

Until then I'll be screaming revenge
Deep into your ear, my dear
