

News Team, Assemble

Broadway

Well this is news, this is news to me.
How quick were we to say farewell?

Let's take it back to the time of the accident
if that's even what this was.
Even if all of this never happened
What's it got to do with us?
You know, I never thought you had it in you
But I kinda always heard you were a liar.
Well maybe, oh just maybe, we can get this right.

The beauty of this was so short-
lived, lacking purpose and direction.
We're far too close to ever let it go, and you should know.

It looks like my timing's...off.

The beauty of this was so short-
lived, lacking purpose and direction.
We're far too close to ever let it go, and you should know.

Separation was all part of my plan.

As cloudy mountain tops turn to palm tree parking lots
I ask myself why I ever bothered to try with you
As if I knew.
