BROCKHAMPTON

Through the quicksand, the wind, and the bush in between Someone has to shine
The boys of the wild found each other during their time of need and chose to turn to each other in order to grow Learn, learn, share, hope Running away from home, facing the fears of the real world Maintaining to hold on to the idea that connected them all, but this is difficult Challenging, there's something different in the air
The clouds are changing, weapons, love, heartbreak, and everything in between Dirty, filthy boys
Don't let this one die
