

Day By Day

Broken Back

I don't know where this train goes
And I don't like doing what I'm told
But every time that I get low
In my chest this small light glows

'Cause day by day, I take and take my time
Whatever comes my way, it won't be a waste in rhymes
Day by day, I take and take my time
Whatever comes my way, not afraid to fall and try

I push my luck on the edge for fun
Life's too short, there's no need to rush
Once you told me you better run
But two years later I still don't understand

'Cause day by day, I take and take my time
Whatever comes my way, it won't be a waste in rhymes
Day by day, I take and take my time
Whatever comes my way, not afraid to fall and try

Day by day, I take and take my time
Whatever comes my way, it won't be a waste in rhymes
Day by day, I take and take my time
Whatever comes my way, not afraid to fall and try
