

Home

Broken Back

The world was way too big if it was just us two
But I will do my best to mute the rest for you
Life is a gift and I'd like to give mine to you

I'm lonely in a city 'cause I'm lost on you
Fly to an island and paint the ocean blue
Know time is kind of precious, but I'd like to waste mine with you

I've been waiting, waiting, my love
Birds to fly away, alone
See the seasons, seasons changing
They won't come home
I'm still waiting, waiting for love
Feel the colour fade along
See their smiles and eyes
Hear truth and lies
Just come home

Need no sunshine neither freedom but I need you
So I'll be coming back, hoping you missed me too
If love is a riddle, I'd like to solve it all for you

The world is big enough to dig a place for two
Let's build us a house where we'd be safe and true
Know time is kinda precious but I like to waste mine with you

I've been waiting, waiting my love
Birds to fly away, alone
See the seasons, seasons changing
They won't come home
I'm still waiting, waiting for love
Feel the colour fade along
See their smiles and eyes
Hear truth and lies
Just come home

I've been waiting, waiting, my love
Birds to fly away, alone
See the seasons, seasons changing
They won't come home
I'm still waiting, waiting for love
Feel the colour fade along
See their smiles and eyes
Hear truth and lies
Just come home

(Come home now)