

Jack & Jill

Broken Back

Jack & Jill went up the hill to get a little high
Sat and talked for hours how they wanted more from life
She promised him forever as she looked him in the eyes
Little did Jack know that every word of it was lies

And it all came tumbling down
When he found out she's sleeping around
Oh, where does it leave those promises now?
King of the hill but she's broken his crown
And his heart sinks, his head in the clouds
She left him so low with her goodbye

Now Jack's getting high
Oh, now Jack's getting high, high, high
Now Jack's getting high
Oh, now, yeah, Jack's getting high and high and high

Sometimes Jill goes up the hill to think back on those times
Looks out on the world, wonders what Jack made of his life
She promised him forever when she looked him in the eyes
She knew then that every single word of it was lies

And it all came tumbling down
When she found out he's moved out of town
What goes round always comes back around
If only she hadn't broken his crown
Maybe Jack would be with her now
She wasted all her time with other guys

While Jack was getting high
Oh, now Jack's getting high, high, high
Now Jack's getting high
Oh, now, yeah, Jack's getting high and high and high
Now Jack's getting high
Oh, now Jack's getting high, high, high
Now Jack's getting high
Oh, now, yeah, Jack's getting high and high and high
Now Jack's getting high

Now Jack's getting high
