

King

Broken Back

Where it starts with questions
It ends with no choice
Feels like oppression
Yeah just keep your voice
Very bad equation
You telling me that I'm wrong
Starts with concessions
But it ends in shit songs

In my castle I'm the king
Let my music be the queen
Can you even see what what I mean?
Yeah, you don't even matter
In my castle I'm the king
Let my music be the queen
Can you even see what what I mean?
Yeah, you don't even matter

Starts with digression
In the end we get lost
Follow depression
Yeah, taking back your trust
Here's my confession
I'm telling you that I'm bored
Starts with repression
But it ends in shit chords

In my castle I'm the king
Let my music be the queen
Can you even see what what I mean?
Yeah, you don't even matter
In my castle I'm the king
Let my music be the queen
Can you even see what what I mean?
Yeah, you don't even matter

In my castle I'm the king
Let my music be the queen
Can you even see what what I mean?
Yeah, you don't even matter
In my castle I'm the king
Let my music be the queen
Can you even see what what I mean?
Yeah, you don't even matter

In my castle I'm the king
Let my music be the queen
Can you even see what what I mean?
Yeah, you don't even matter
In my castle I'm the king
Let my music be the queen
Can you even see what what I mean?
Yeah, you don't even matter
