

Lady Bitterness

Broken Back

I can hear her whispers in my ears
Feel her breath grow stronger by the years
Is she crying, yes long time no see
I haven't missed you dear
Why are you calling me?

Lost in the light of your eyes
Keep failing but it's no surprise
I need to resist but I can't let go

Feel the anger
Growing stronger
Careless wishes
Always leads me to you
Always leads me to you

Always leads me to you
Always leads me to you
I've been waiting for you
I've been waiting for you
My Lady Bitterness

Are you here for irony and pain
Licking old wounds, are you not my friend?
Now you're trying, trying to blacken me
I haven't missed you dear
Why are you calling me?

Lost in the light of your eyes
Keep failing but it's no surprise
I need to resist but I can't let go

Feel the anger
Growing stronger
Careless wishes
Always leads me to you
Always leads me to you

Always leads me to you
Always leads me to you
I've been waiting for you
I've been waiting for you
My Lady Bitterness

Lost in the light of your eyes
Keep failing but it's no surprise
I need to resist but I can't let go

Feel the anger
Growing stronger
Careless wishes
Always leads me to you
Always leads me to you

Always leads me to you
Always leads me to you
I've been waiting for you

I 've been waiting for you
