

Light Ya Fire

Broken Back

I feel it inside, say you're feeling it too
I know you're hiding, wait for the light of the moon

I pull you in, you're close to me, feel your body on mine
Show you how it's supposed to be, light ya fire

'Cause I know you hear this ra-ta-ta-ta-da
Running fast but it don't even matter
And I'm gonna catch you before you get home
Soon as you feel it you're losing control
Trust me, tonight gonna catch you alone
Bet you can feel it, you're losing control

Stars are shining, now you're shining bright too
There's no denying, one only thing left to do

I pull you in, you're close to me, feel your body on mine
Show you how it's supposed to be, light ya fire

'Cause I know you hear this ra-ta-ta-ta-da
Running fast but it don't even matter
And I'm gonna catch you before you get home
Soon as you feel it you're losing control
Trust me, tonight gonna catch you alone
Bet you can feel it, you're losing control

I pull you in, you're close to me, feel your body on mine
Show you how it's supposed to be, light ya fire

'Cause I know you hear this ra-ta-ta-ta-da
Running fast but it don't even matter
And I'm gonna catch you before you get home
Soon as you feel it you're losing control
Trust me, tonight gonna catch you alone
Bet you can feel it, you're losing control

'Cause I know you hear this ra-ta-ta-ta-da
Running fast but it don't even matter
And I'm gonna catch you before you get home
Soon as you feel it you're losing control
Trust me, tonight gonna catch you alone
Bet you can feel it, you're losing control
