Broken Back

One by one
I take 'em down
Pictures of you and me
Scattered across the ground

I don't know why I feel so down
Let it flow, she said you'll be fine
Please don't go, but she took the crown
I feel low now my queen is gone
I don't know why I feel so down
Let it flow, she said you'll be fine
Please don't go, but she took the crown now

I take 'em down
Pictures of you and me
Scattered across the ground
One by one
I throw 'em back
One more shot of whiskey
Trying to forget the past

Remember when we took on that way
Listen to what problems say
Breathing in, breathing out
He tried everything in vain, but

Why not stay here? We're no more kids
You cannot just walk away
I'm not weird, but a limited edition
And now it goes like

I don't know why I feel so down
Let it flow, she said you'll be fine
Please don't go but she took the crown
I feel low now my queen is gone
I don't know why I feel so down
Let it flow, she said you'll be fine
Please don't go, but she took the crown now
