

The Sooner The Better

Broken Back

And the sooner the better
And the sooner the better

You've never crossed the line
Don't you wanna to see what's behind
But you'd better make up your mind
About the ocean
You've never crossed the line
Don't you wanna to see what's behind
But you'd better make up your mind
And the sooner the better

And the sooner the better
And the sooner the better

I wanna see the world
Don't wanna do it on my own
So pack your things
We ain't coming home
For a little while

And if we leave tonight
Would you have time to say goodbye
Grab all you need
Don't wanna leave
Nothing behind

You've never crossed the line
Don't you wanna to see what's behind
But you'd better make up your mind
About the ocean
You've never crossed the line
Don't you wanna to see what's behind
But you'd better make up your mind
And the sooner the better

And the sooner the better
And the sooner the better

Let's take a subway to the ocean
With no regrets we're just keep going
And we can fake wolf cries, say we're sick in bed
We still got dreams inside our heads
We still got dreams inside unread

You've never crossed the line
Don't you wanna to see what's behind
But you'd better make up your mind
About the ocean
You've never crossed the line
Don't you wanna to see what's behind
But you'd better make up your mind
And the sooner the better

And the sooner the better
And the sooner the better
