We Are

Broken Back

Five years of work hard in silence
Let the success be our noise
I won't always be motivated
Never gave me other choice
When they come whisper to you here
Not strong enough for the storm
Tell 'em, tell 'em with no fears
Yes I'm the storm and I come

We are, we are the fighters
We are, we are the dust
We gonna take up stance when
They all gonna call it prance
We are, we are the warriors
We are, we are the first
We gonna take up stance when
They all gonna call it chance

Light up this spark hard would make sense
Let the hopeless and their voice
You won't always be forever young
Why not give you other choice?
When they come whisper to your ears
Not strong enough for the flood
Make it, make it crystal clear
Yes I'm the flood and I come

We are, we are the fighters
We are, we are the dust
We gonna take up stance when
They all gonna call it prance
We are, we are the warriors
We are, we are the first
We gonna take up stance when
They all gonna call it chance

We are, we are the fighters
We are, we are the dust
We gonna take up stance when
They all gonna call it prance
We are, we are the warriors
We are, we are the first
We gonna take up stance when
They all gonna call it chance
