

Young Love

Broken Back

I fall deep, deep into myself
Swimmin' in the mud
I try to keep, to keep over water
I fall deep, deep into myself
Swimmin' in the mud
I count sheep, sheep in the dark

'Cause I am dumb enough
To know none of this makes sense
I won't grow up
Hold onto my innocence
I'm dumb enough
To know none of this makes sense
I'm young, in love
And a little bit ridiculous

My young love
Young love
My young love
Young love

Caught between two ends
One will someday die
Choice is to stay here or fly
Troubles my friend you're Overextended
Voices they sing me the signs

I fall deep, deep into myself
Swimmin' in the mud
I try to keep, keep over water
I fall deep, deep into myself
Swimmin' in the mud
I count sheep, sheep in the dark

'Cause I am dumb enough
To know none of this makes sense
I won't grow up
Hold on to my innocence
I'm dumb enough
To know none of this makes sense
I'm young, in love
And a little bit ridiculous

My young love
Young love
My young love
Young love

'Cause I am dumb enough
To know none of this makes sense
I won't grow up
Hold on to my innocence
I'm dumb enough
To know none of this makes sense
I'm young, in love
And a little bit ridiculous